

THE NIH CLINICAL CENTER SMOKING POLICY

As the nation's leading medical research center, the NIH Clinical Center is committed to ensuring a healthy and safe environment for patients, visitors and staff. The NIH is a smoke-free campus.

However, Medical Executive Committee policy permits patient smoking under certain strictly controlled circumstances. Patients who want information about how to quit smoking should talk with a member of their care team or with the principal investigator on their study.

